Google Summer of Code
Google Summer of Code™

This space is dedicated to the Google Summer of Code™.

Google Summer of Code™ is a program that offers student developers stipends to write code for various open source projects.

Introduction

Google is sponsoring the Google Summer of Code. The OW2 Consortium intends to be one of the participating mentor organizations.

The "Ideas" page contains all the subjects that will be proposed by the OW2 Consortium.

We are currently in the process of adding ideas for 2007.

OW2 mentors

We invite all OW2 projects or Open Source project using OW2 middleware to submit their ideas.

Any OW2 member may apply for taking part in Google Summer of Code as a mentor.

Any OW2 member and experienced developers can submit ideas using the template. We are looking for as many interesting projects as we can come up with.

Students

As a student, you can find an idea. you like and make application to work on it by contacting directly the mentors.
